Denim Day

Wednesday, April 14

Wear denim as a visible sign of protest against the myths that still surround sexual assault!

Be a part of this international event that started in 1998 after an Italian Supreme Court judge overturned a rape conviction because the victim wore tight jeans.

Wearing jeans became an international symbol of protest against erroneous and destructive attitudes about sexual assault.

For more information about Denim Day, visit eoss.asu.edu/wellness/SVdenimday and follow @ASU SRVP on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.

Visit a Denim Day table to pick up a sticker and learn more about how you can play a role in supporting survivors and preventing violence.

Wednesday, April 14

Downtown Phoenix
11 a.m. – 2 p.m.
Taylor Mall

Tempe
11 a.m. – 2 p.m.
Memorial Union

West
11 a.m. - 2 p.m.
